

Drill stem subs

are used for connecting parts of drill stems and joining the drilling tools to it. Drill stem is a pipe nipple, made of highly-alloy steel the upper and lower ends of which terminate in locking threads. Drill stem subs are manufactured in all sizes in accordance with GOST 7360-82.

Types of drilling stem subs:

- P type – bottle neck, box-pin;
- M type – box, box-box;
- N type – pin-type, pin-pin.

Drill tubing pipe subs are used to connect tubing pipes of different diameters, underground equipment with threaded tubing connector ends. Drill tubing pipe subs are manufactured in all sizes in accordance with GOST 23979-80.

